Re: Keane v. Early Warning Services, LLC, et al. – Case No. 1:24-cv-06108-JHR; Order [3]

Dear Judge Rearden:

May It Please the Court. I represent the plaintiff, Antoine Keane (“Plaintiff” or “Mr. Keane”). On 8/15/2024, Judge Abrams entered an Order [3], requiring the Parties to submit a joint letter on 9/13/2024, and appear by phone for an initial status conference on 9/20/2024, at 3:00 p.m. Plaintiff respectfully requests to know if said Order [3] is still in effect or whether it is adjourned to another date or modified as to the call-in number provided or in any other way by this Court.

Thank you.

Respectfully submitted,

s/ Brian L. Ponder

However, all previously scheduled appearances or conferences before the District Judge are hereby adjourned pending further notice from the Court.” ECF No. 13. Accordingly, the September 20, 2024 status conference has been adjourned sine die. In addition, the deadline to submit the joint letter described in ECF No. 3 is hereby adjourned.

The Clerk of Court is directed to terminate ECF No. 29.
